

Young People & Substance Use Seminar Agenda

Iris Murdoch Building: Conference Rooms 1 & 2, Stirling FK9 4NF

Tuesday the 19th of August

Time	Presenter	Presentation
09:30-10:00		Tea and Coffee
10:00-10:05	Chair	Welcome
10:05-10:20	Adrian Farrugia, Senior Research Fellow Australian Research Centre in Sex, Health and Society La Trobe University	Everyday intoxications: A qualitative analysis of young people's alcohol and other drug consumption
10:20-10:35	Nyssa Ferguson, Research Officer in the Department of Public Health at La Trobe University	Engaging lived experience in health promotion: Insights from a qualitative analysis of overdose experiences for supporting take-home naloxone uptake
10:35-10:50	Hannah Carver, Senior Lecturer in Substance Use in the Faculty of Social Sciences and Co-Director of the Salvation Army Centre for Addiction Services and Research (SACASR)	The Illicit Project: Adaption and implementation of an evidence-based schools prevention programme for older adolescents
10:50-11:05		Q&A
11:05-11:20		Tea/Coffee/Networking
11:20-11:35	Danilo Falzon, Research Assistant – Salvation Army Centre for Addiction Services and Research	Realist review of 'systems-based approaches' approaches to reduce substance use harms amongst young people.
11:35-12:00	Kira Watson, Drug Harm Reduction Lead - East of Scotland Clinical Directorate Scottish Ambulance Service	Sirens and Substances: What Ambulance Data Reveals About Youth Drug Trends
12:00-12:30	Chair	Group discussion
12:30		Lunch and networking
13:30		Event ends